The Tennessee Association of Adult Day Services was established in 1986 to provide support to those who provide a variety of day services to adults.

FEATURED SPEAKER
TEEPA SNOW, MS, OTR/L, FAOTA

Teepa is an occupational therapist currently serving as a dementia care and dementia education specialist. She is a Counseling Associate for Duke University's School of Nursing and also works part-time for the Eastern North Carolina Chapter of the Alzheimer's Association. She has over 27 years of experience in geriatrics. Previously, she served as the Education Director and lead trainer for the Eastern NC Chapter of the Alzheimer's Association. She has also been a program director and instructor for an OTA Program and a clinical associate professor at UNC's School of Medicine on an interdisciplinary team. She has a strong and varied clinical background. She was the OT director in a head injury facility, a clinical specialist in geriatrics at a Veteran's Administration Medical Center and has worked as a restorative care coordinator for long term care facilities, as well as providing direct care in community, home health, long term care, assisted living, and rehabilitation settings.
